Freedom vs. Slavery.

Such are the two great elements of polit ical power now contending for the suprem acy in the federal government. One di rectly opposite the other in all that constitutes the true essentials of human society or of human government. Between the two there ever has, and there ever will be, an irrepressible conflict until freedom shall be recognized by the American people as it was by the Fathers; the only national inthe natural result from a contact of such opposing principles. Slavery degrades and brutalizes man and denys his inherent and natural rights. Freedom elevates and ennobles the human race and grants man his inalienable right of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Freedom is the very Basis and bulwark of an enlightened and powerful government. Slavery undermines

The history of all past empires and republics affords incontrovertible proof of this position. The Roman empire owed its greatness and power to the institutions of human liberty--its downfall to their degradation by the instituting of human slavery. Let us then learn wisdom from the experience of the past. Our own country has las," has been issued from the Chicago owing to the blight of human slavery, are the weakest in internal strength and resources of any part of the Union. The proof of this is to be found in her impoverished soil, the degraded and illiterate condition of her non-slaveholding whites, the decreased value of her lands, and the sparsity of many as would go out to see a dog fighther population. The true remedy for this not so many as go out to join a German frolic. The rowdies were there in full great political evil is its exclusion by the American people from the national territories by their chosen representatives in the The rowdies had it all to themselves. The federal congress. This was the position of the fathers of the republic, and of the best and wisest of American statesmen. It is his fortune at stump oratory. The only question is as to numbers. repeated decisions, by the earlier judges, who were imbued with the principles of the sion, but the manner and terms of the match

Our own experience then, and the history of past governments having demonstrated the fact that slavery is the sure and certain element of ruin and decay, and freedom the bulwark of national power, it becomes us as American freemen in this important presidential canvass to cast our vote upon the side of human liberty. The strength of nations does not consist in their immense naval or military armaments; on coming into New Jersey, to learn that but in the intelligence and worth of a free the same old lady was previously married and enlightened people. The restriction of slavery to the territories is the only political remedy left to us, under the constitution. This was deemed and fell several feet on to a fork, one prong sufficient to eradicate the evil by Jefferson and his compeers, and this was their policy as was acknowledged by Mason, of Va., last winter in the United States Senate. If it had been strictly adhered to we should not now be compelled to meet this question and decide it. Slavery would have died out ere this in every state in the Union. A REMARKABLE CASE.—The following tribute to an ancient negro slave is remarkable. We give it in the striking language of "Her Physician," which we could not improve :

Died, at the farm of Dr. E. J. Mims, near his place, on the 5th inst., Old Lizzy Grav. She had resided with much dignity and piety in her tabernacle of clay, according to the best computation, for one hundred ered as a shock of ripe corn to her fathers. She was imported from Africa during the Revolution, after having borne four children in that country. During the Revolution she was a prisoner on board a British ship. She was educated in her youth under the nthuences of Mahommedan tenets, and alhough she united herself many years ago to the Methodist church, she ever said "that Christ built the first Church in Mecca and he grave was da."

'For many years past she has been enluring with remarkable physical energy, as well as christian fortitude, the infirmities of age. And until deprived of her locomotive powers, within the last three or four weeks, she was ever able to visit her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren; appy herself, she met them happy, well cared for and nothing to fear and dread. Her constant prayer was " if thou wilt-let for the people of God." Nor did she expect to take her last journey alone-she Almighty guide or pilot to come for her and accompany her safe home. Her last words to her daughter, were, "let me see you once more—Jesus has come!"—and she died and was buried in a granite sarcophagus.-

5th Academic Year.

Sth Academic Tear.

I MIIS Institution is strictly a Family Bearding School, and is under the immediate supervision of Prof. Turner, formerly of Utica, N. Y. Prof. Turner's long experience as a teacher, the heautiful and ample playgrounds attached to his residence and Academy, and their healthful position, recommend them to the parents who should wish to confide their children to the care of Prof. Turner, who will superintend the audies of the Institution, and give his particular attention to the modern languages. The French, being the language of the family, will be the language of the Institution.—German and Spanish are also written and spakes. Prof. Turner will guarantee that, independent of their other studies, his pupils will, at the close of the sholastic year, speak and write the French language. When pupils are far enough advanced in French, instruction will be given in Spanish or Italian.

Mrs. Turner will devote her attention to the Family Department; her kindness and long exteriores quality

CAPITAL AND SURBLUS,

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely apon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but five spanis, and so superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world-first class bonds and mortgages upon property in Now York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panis, as the experience of the past tenches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And white there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-stide statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital tories the amount, and inmost instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks: With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies Issued without dalay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company, CASH CAPITAL OVER - $1,900,000 all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their ununal promiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state. of their annual promiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

Ariemus Ward Sees the Prince of Wales.

At larst ive had a interview with the Prince, tho it putty nigh cost me my vallerable life. I cawt a glymps of him as he sot on the Pizarro of the hotel in Sarnia, & elbowed myself threw a crowd of wimin children, sojers & Injins that was hangin round the tavern. I was drawin near to the Prince when a red fasted man in Millingtery close grabd holt of me and axed me whare I was goin all so bold?

To see Albert Edard the Prince of Wales," sez I; "who be you?".

He sed he was Kurnal of the Seventy Fust Regiment, Her Mojesty's troops. I told him I hoped the Seventy Onesters was in good health, and was passin by when he ceased hold of me agin, and sed in a tone of indignent cirprize:

of indignent cirprize:

"What? Impossible! It kannot be!
Blast my hize, sir, did I understan' yu to say that you was actoally goin into the persents of his Royal Iniss?"

"That's what's the matter with me," I

"But blarst my hize, sir, its onpresdent. It's orful, sir. Nothin like it hain't hap-pened sins the Gun Powder Plot of Guy Forks. Owdashus man, who air you?" "Sir," sez I, drawin' myself up & puttin on a defiant air. "Ime a Amerycan citteron a defiant air. "Ime a Amerycan citterzen. My name is Ward... Ime a husband & the father of twins, which Ime happy to state they look like. By perfeshun Ime a exhibiter of wax wurks & sich."

"Good God." yelled the kurnal, "the idee of a exhibiter of wax figgers goin into the presents of Royalty! The British Lion way well roor at the thawt!"

may well roar at the thawt!"

Sez I, Speakin of the British Lion, Kur-

"This can't be real," he showted. "No no, It's a borrid dream. Sir, you are not a human bein-you hev no existents-yure a myth |"

"Wall," sez I, "old hoss, yule find me ruther onkonfortable myth ef you punch my inards in that way agin." I began to get a little riled, fur when he called me a myth he puncht me purty hard. The Kur-nal now commenst showtin for Seventy Onesters. I at first thawt Ide stay and becum a marter to British Ontraje, as sich a corse mile git my name up & he a good advertisement for my show, but it occurred to me that if any of the Seventy Onesters should happen to insert a barronet into my stum-mick, it mite be onpleasunt, & I was on the pint of runnin orf, when the Prince hisself kum up and axed me what the matter was. Sez I, "Albert Edard, is that yu?" & he smilt & sed it was. Sez I, "Albert Edard, hears my keerd. I kum to pay my respecks to the futer King of Ingland. The Kurnal of the Seventy Onesters hear is rather amawl pertaters, but of corse you ain't to blame fur that. He puts on as many airs as tho he war the Bully Boy with the glass

" Never mind," sez Albert Ddard, "Ime glad tu sec yu, Mister Ward, at all events, & larfed so sweet that I felt in love with him to onct. He handed me a segar & we sot down on the Pizarro & commenst smokin

The Prince larfed & intermated that the eridge spile in the sellar in the coarse of a We sot & tawked there sum time about matters & things, & bimeby I axed him how he liked bein Prince as fur as

"To speak plain, Mister Ward," he sed, 'I dont much like it. Ime sick of all this bowin & scrapin & crawlin & hurrain over a boy like me. I wood rather go threw the country quietly & enjoy myself in my own way, with the other boys, and not to be made a Show of to be garped at by every-When the peepel cheer me I feel body. pleased, for I know they meen it, but if these one hose offishuls cood know how I see thru all their moves & understan exakly what they air after, & knowed how I larft at em in private, thayd stop kissin my hands & fawnin over me as they now do. But You know Mister Ward I can't help bein a Prince, & I must do all I kin to fit myself fur the persishun I must sumtime ockepy." "That's troo," sez I, "sickness and the doctors will carry the Queen orf one of these dase, sures yer born."

The time heven arove fur me to take my departer I rose up and sed, "Albert Edard, must go, but previs to doin so I will ob sarve that you soot me. Yure a good feller Albert Edard, & the Ime agin Princes as a gineral thing, I must say I like the cut of yure gib. When you git to be King try and be as good a man as yure muther has bin. Bk just & be jenurus, espeshully to showmen, who hey allers bin aboozed sins the days of Noah, who was the fust man to go into the Managery bizness, & ef the daiy papers of his time air to be beleeved Noah's colleckshun of livin wild beests beat ennything ever seen sins, tho I make bold to dowt of his snaiks was ahead of mine. Albert Edward, adoo!" I tuk his hand which he shook warmly, & given him a per-petooal free pars to my show, & also parses to take home for the Queen & Ole Albert, I put on my hat & walkt away.

"Mrs. Ward," I solilerquized, as I walkt along, "Mrs. Ward, ef you could see your husband now, jest as he prowdly emerjis from the presents of the futur King of Ingland, youd be sorry you called him a Beest jest becawz he come home tired I mite & wanted to go to bed without taking orf his boots. Youd be sorry for tryin to deprive your husband of the priceless boon of lib-erty, Betsy Jane!" A. WARD.

EATING CORN. - A distinguished foreigner, who is stopping at one of our Boston hotels, yesterday found some boiled Indian corn on the table at dinner—a dish to which he was not accustomed. Following examples set around him, he ate off the corn, and liking it very much, he passed the cob to the waiter, and asked to have some more corn put on it. The waiter was waggish, and he took the cob and returned a fresh ear, so the traveler knew he had done just right! "Ignerance is bliss."-Boston At-

1 He above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solveiney and reliability and honorable dealing they have but few equals, and no superity in New York and Brooklyn-securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than and are every way more reliable and permanent than and are every way more reliable and permanent than fulurad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panie, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice-the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a cretainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

Artemus Ward Sees the Prince of Wales.

At larst ive had a interview with the Prince, tho it putty nigh cost me my vallerable life. I cawt a glymps of him as he sot on the Pizarro of the hotel in Sarnia, & elbowed myself threw a crowd of wimin. children, sojers & Injins that was hanging round the tavern. I was drawin near to the Prince when a red fasted man in Millingtery close grabd holt of me and axed. me where I was goin all so bold? "To see Albert Edard the Prince of Wales," sez I; "who be you?"

He sed he was Kurnal of the Seventy Fust Regiment, Her Mojesty's troops. I told him I hoped the Seventy Onesters was in good health, and was passin by when he ceased hold of me agir, and sed in a tone of indignent cirprize:
"What? Impossible! It kannot be!
Blast my hize, sir, did I understan yu to say that you was actooally goin into the persents of his Royal Iniss?" "That's what's the matter with me," I

EATING CORN.-A distinguished foreigner, who is stopping at one of our Boston hotels, yesterday found some boiled Indian corn on the table at dinner—a dish to which he was not accustomed. Following examples set around him, he ate off the corn, and liking it very much, he passed the col to the waiter, and asked to have some more corn put on it. The waiter was waggish, and he took the coh and returned a fresh ear, so the traveler knew he had done just right! "Ignorance is bliss."-Boston At-

Freedom vs. Slavery.

For Coroner.

JOHN E. YOUNG, of Harmony.

Such are the two great elements of polit ical power now contending for the suprem acy in the federal government. One directly opposite the other in all that constitutes the true essentials of human society two there ever has, and there ever will be, an irrepressible conflict until freedom shall be recognized by the American people as it was by the Fathers; the only national institution of the Republic. This strife between the two systems is nothing more than the natural result from a contact of such opposing principles. Slavery degrades and brutalizes man and denys his inherent and natural rights. Freedom elevates and ennobles the human race and grants man his inalienable right of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Freedom is the very basis and bulwark of an enlightened and and degrades a nation into a state of brutality and barbarism.

The history of all past empires and republics affords incontrovertible proof; of this position. The Roman empire owed its greatness and power to the institutions of human liberty-its downfall to their degradation by the instituting of human slavery. Let us then learn wisdom from the experi- third, of the "Political Record of Dougence of the past. Our own country has las," has been issued from the Chicago within itself the seeds of dissolution. The Press and Tribune office. It shows Dougslave states of the south, the most genial in las, from his own words and votes, to have climate and the most fertile and productive taken, at different times in his career, alof any portion of the American continent, most every conceivable attitude on the slaowing to the blight of human slavery, are very question. the weakest in internal strength and resoursoil, the degraded and illiterate condition of her non-slaveholding whites, the decreased value of her lands, and the sparsity of her population. The true remedy for this great political evil is its exclusion by the American people from the national territories by their chosen representatives in the the fathers of the republic, and of the best the supreme court of the United States, by repeated decisions, by the earlier judges, who were imbued with the principles of the

Our own experience then, and the history of past governments having demonstrated the fact that slavery is the sure and certain element of ruin and decay, and freedom the bulwark of national power, it becomes us as American freemen in this important presidential canvass to cast our vote upon the side of human liberty. The strength of nations does not consist in their immense naval or nillitary armaments; but in the intelligence and worth of a free and enlightened people. So with our own country the sacred guarantees of the constitution must be maintained and our free institutious become endeared to every freeman as the sacred pledge of American liberty. Then would this union of states attain the highest degree of national prosperity and become the impregnable fortress of freedom upon the broad earth.

The restriction of slavery to the territories is the only political remedy left to us, under the constitution. This was deemed sufficient to eradicate the cril by Jefferson and his compeers, and this was their policy as was acknowledged by Mason, of Va., last winter in the United States Senate. If it had been strictly adhered to we should not now be compelled to meet this question and decide it. Slavery would have died out ere this in every state in the Union. But the policy of the founders of our government has been changed and we, their descendants, are compelled to dispose of slavery now when it has grown to be a monster wrong. Let us not put off the evil day, but meet it like men and patriots. Acknowledging that we have no power over don't, and I'll cave his head in with a cis. he will slavery in the states which have adopted it | tern pole!"

by their local laws, we will insist that wherever the nation has power, outside of the states, we will wage an "irrepressible pressible conflict" against it in all its forms, hoping, while the national government is kept from sustaining human bondage, and is free from its influence, in the language of Patrick Henry, "that the time will come, when an opportunity will be offered to abolish this lamentable evil" by all the states. Thus we shall then have a glorious, united, happy and FREE REPUBLIC.

AN INDUCEMENT FOR THE WIDE AWAKES. -The Chicago Journal says: It should be generally understood throughout the north-west, that the ladies of Chicago will present a banner costing $100 to the largest Wide Awake Company, in proportion to the republican vote of the town, that attends the great republican gathering in this city on the 2d of October.

The four states of Maine, Vermont, Missouri and Arkansas have chosen their members of the 37th congress. Including Rollins and Blair of Missouri, eleven are republicans, five Douglas democrats and two Breckinridge democrats. Six of the eighteen are members of the present house.

The gallant Henry Winter Davis, of Maryland, was written to by some of the managers of the Bell meeting, in Easton, Pa, and requested to favor them with a speech. His reply was to the effect that he would be happy to make any number of speeches for them—but hereafter his speeches would far and the traditionally revolutionary drift of or of human government. Without fusion, 50,000 is set down; with fusion, 100,000. Men don't object to fusion, but the manner and terms of the match are objected to.

The republican ratification meeting last night at Cooper Institute was a grand affair. None such has taken place this season in connection with any party.

Mr. J. Center, in a recent speech in New Jersey, described a shocking case of biga-my. He said that Madam Bell-Everett was recently married in Syracuse, New York, Messrs. Brooks & Hunt, in accordance with the custom, giving away the bride to a gen-tleman of Illinois. Judge of his surprise on coming into New Jersey, to learn that the same old lady was previously married in New Jersey, to a gentleman now living in Kentucky. It was a clear case of bigamy, and likely to produce much scandal, and he suggested that the ladies present should aid their New York sisters in packing off this unprincipled jade to Utah, where such proceedings are more in accordance with public sentiment.

About eight inches of the fork were in the head, and a fellow-laborer bad much difficulty in drawing it out. improve: OLD LIZZY GRAY.

Died, at the farm of Dr. E. J. Mims, near this place, on the 5th inst., Old Lizzy Gray. She had resided with much dignity and piety in her tabernacle of clay, according to the best computation, for one hundred and twenty-seven years, when she was gathered as a shock of ripe corn to her fathers, She was imported from Africa during the Revolution, after having borne four children n that country. During the Revolution the was a prisoner on board a British ship. She was educated in her youth under the nfluences of Mahommedan tenets, and although she united herself many years ago to the Methodist church, she ever said "that Christ built the first Church in Mecca and he grave was da." For many years past she has been enduring with remarkable physical energy, as well as christian fortitude, the infirmities of age. And until deprived of her locomotive powers, within the last three or four weeks, she was ever able to visit her children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren;

happy herself, she met them happy, well cared for and nothing to fear and dread. Her last weeks and months were spent n almost constant communion with Heaven; or she knew that her Redeemer liveth. Her constant prayer was " if thou wilt-let me die—give me that rest that remaineth for the people of God." Nor did she expect to take her last journey alone—she was hourly expecting some sure, true, and Almghty guide or pilot to come for her and accompany her safe home. Her last words to her daughter, were, " let me see you once more-Jesus has come !"-and she diedand was buried in a granite sarcophagus,-Edgefield (S. C.) Advertiser.

A FOOLISH FARMER .- A Huntington farmer, who visited Springfield, Mass., last week, made a very foolish and nearly fatal leap from the express train, while returning ome. The train did not stop at Huntington, and he was told of it; but rather than go to Chester and come back on the returnng accommodation train, he risked his life and broke his head by jumping off as the cars rushed wildly by the station. One side of his body was completely undressed and skinned, and his features were so distorted by a collision with the ground that it was some time before his wife recognized him as her own. As soon as his senses returned, he explained the matter by saying he "had cows to milk, and could lose no time in going to Chester." He thinks, however, he will let the cows go next time. -Springfield (Mass.) Republican,

Under the doctrine of non-intervention, established by Douglas in 1854, the south has absolutely gained 83,000 square miles of slave-holding territory. How? Why, the territorial government of New Mexico has enacted a slave code as full and as stringent as the slave code of North Carolina, and slavery is thus protected in that territory, and of the 260,000 square miles of that territory, 83,000 square miles, embracing the oldest and most thickly settled portion, are situated north of the Missonri

ALWAYS ROOM UP-STAIRS .- A young man who was thinking of studying law, said to Daniel Webster: "Mr. Webster, I understand the profession of law is quite full, and that there are more lawyers than are needed; do you think there is any chance for me? "There is always room up stairs," was the reply, and as true as it was ingen ious. Only a few persons reach the high places, and these are always in great demand-" There is room enough up-stairs." First-class farmers and mechanics, as well as physicians, lawyers, &c., always find plenty of room, plenty of work, and good

Mr. Seward in Blimois.

Mr. Seward and his party left Dunleith on the night train on Friday, via Galcia, Freeport, Mendota and Quincy for Kansas. At Galena the inevitable wide awakes were at the depot, two hundred strong, with a splen did Young America corps, numbering eighty members. The "boys in drill and appear ance were fully equal to their elder broth ers. Mr. Seward spoke briefly, and was fol lowed by others of the party. On arriving at Freeport at half past ten, the train was welcomed by the booming of cannon, the presence of the ladies of the city, the wide wakes, and a large concourse of citizens. Mr. Seward was conducted to a platform and returned his thanks for the compliment conveyed by such an attendance, at such an unseasonable hour. In the course of his remarks he said, "In spite of all combina-tions formed, or to be formed, set down New York for 70,000. [A voice. Half of that is enough.] No, sir, half of that is not enough. In an ordinary case, New York would give 35,000 majority. But under the circumstances, we shall be satisfied with nothing less than 70,000 for Abraham Lincoln." Hon. C. F. Adams, Gen. Nye and others were also called out. At Dixon, although after midnight, the cannon, with the ever present wide awakes, and a large crowd, were at the depot to honor the distinguished statesman.

The entire party, with the exception of Hon. C. F. Adams, who returns home, proceed to Kansas, and will be at Chicago on the 2d of October.

In the town of Clyde, Montgomery county, Illinois, where the republicans had but eleven votes in 1858, they now have fortytwo. Such are the gains almost everywhere in Egypt.

cony of the Richmond House. At two o'clock, the royal party went to Bridgeport to view the hydraulic works, thence to Brighton, where they took the cars for the prairies near Dwight, where the hunting excursion will take place.

The entire Royal party left their autographs upon the records of the city this morning. The Prince signed himself "Alfred Edward Prince of Wales," in a neat crow quill hand, followed by "Newcastle," "Lyons," "Germains" "Wilkins," &c., the list concluding with the signature of John Wentworth, mayor of the city.

The Royal party express themselves high of the citizens of Chicago, which was so fully in accordance with the wishes of the Prince. In appearance, the Prince is a pale, beardless, good-natured, well-bred young gentleman of nineteen, with nothing about him to indicate a dangerous man when he assumes the attributes of kingly power.—His manner is fine, and he preserves admirably the dignity demand by his position, although he seemed last evening to look upon the reception simple as it was, as a farce, of which etiquette in some manner demanded notice.—Chicago Journal.

Freedom vs. Slavery.

Such are the two great elements of polit ical power now contending for the suprem acy in the federal government. One di rectly opposite the other in all that constitutes the true essentials of human society or of human government. Between the two there ever has, and there ever will be, an irrepressible conflict until freedom shall be recognized by the American people as it was by the Fathers; the only national inthe natural result from a contact of such opposing principles. Slavery degrades and brutalizes man and denys his inherent and natural rights. Freedom elevates and ennobles the human race and grants man his powerful government. Slavery undermines tality and barbarism. The history of all past empires and republics affords incontrovertible proof of this position. The Roman empire owed its greatness and power to the institutions of human liberty--its downfall to their degradation by the instituting of human slavery. Let us then learn wisdom from the experiowing to the blight of human slavery, are the weakest in internal strength and resources of any part of the Union. The proof of this is to be found in her impoverished soil, the degraded and illiterate condition of her non-slaveholding whites, the decreasgreat political evil is its exclusion by the American people from the national territofederal congress. This was the position of the fathers of the republic, and of the best

Our own experience then, and the history of past governments having demonstrated the fact that slavery is the sure and certain element of ruin and decay, and freedom the bulwark of national power, it becomes us as American freemen in this important presidential canvass to cast our vote upon the side of human liberty. The strength of nations does not consist in their immense naval or military armaments; on coming into New Jersey, to learn that but in the intelligence and worth of a free the same old lady was previously married and enlightened people. So with our own in New Jersey, to a gentleman now living country the sacred guarantees of the constitution must be maintained and our free my, and likely to produce much scandal, institutions become endeared to every free should aid their New York sisters in packman as the sacred pledge of American lib- ing off this unprincipled jade to Utah, erty. Then would this union of states at. where such proceedings are more in accord tain the highest degree of national prosperity and become the impregnable fortress of freedom upon the broad earth.

The restriction of slavery to the territories is the only political remedy left to us, under the constitution. This was deemed and fell several feet on to a fork, one prong sufficient to eradicate the evil by Jefferson and his compeers, and this was their policy as was acknowledged by Mason, of Va., last winter in the United States Senate. If it had been strictly adhered to we should not now be compelled to meet this question and decide it. Slavery would have died out ere this in every state in the Union. But the has been changed and we, their descend. sician was not without hopes of his recovants, are compelled to dispose of slavery ery, -- Boston Courier, now when it has grown to be a monster wrong. WILLIAM ZUILL.

The very large concourse of neighbors and friends, who attended the funeral of this gentleman, in the town of Johnstown, on Saturday last, as well as the attendance of persons from this city, and Walworth county, attested the high estimation in which he was held while living, and the universalregret at his loss.

Mr. Zuill was a native of Kippen, near Sterling, in Scotland. He came to ping.

country in the year 1844—had resided in ping.

The scale bears the name of 'Fairbank's,'

The scale bears the name of 'Fairbank's,' Sterling, in Scotland. He came to this when the accident happened which ended his days, he was but little more than thirtyfour years of age. Under these circumstances his sudden summons to eternity, came with peculiar severity, upon those in whose midst he had so long resided; and the solemn tones of the feneral bell as the cortege proceeded from his late residence to the church, near which his remains were to be deposited, gave to the scene an impressive solemnity. At the church a few appropriate remarks were made by the Rev. Mr. Walker, after which the friends of the deceased took their last look upon his face, and then his remains were borne to the grave, and laid by the side of those of his Father—there to remain until the last trump shall wake him back to life again.

Mr. Zuill, as your readers are aware, had been in attendance upon the Walworth County Fair and was among the injured at the fatal collision which occurred at Delevan, on Friday the 14th inst. After the accident faint hopes were entertained of his recovery, but his injuries proved to be of such a nature as to defy the best medical skill, and on the morning of the 20th he breathed his last.

In speaking of the important loss which those who were near and dear to him have sustained, words are powerless for comfort. Time alone can minister to the stricken heart and reconcile it to its bereavement.

But yet the severity of the blow, is softened in the knowledge that he was an exemplary christian, a tender husband and anaffectionate father; while his character and his virtues, as a quiet and unassuming gentleman, a kind neighbor, a warm friend and active and enterprising man, will endear his memory to those who have enjoyed his acquaintance in the every day intercourse

By his energy and industry, Mr. Zuill had world's goods are concerned, he had gathered every thing around him his heart could wish. But unlike many of that class he never lost that better part of man-his kindness of heart. On all occasions, he was ready to minister to the wants of the distressed, and in every public enterpriseparticularly that which had for its object the advancement of the agricultural interests of the country-he was among the foremost and most liberal of contributors; and in this behalf his loss will be severely felt in the county in which he resided.

Mr. Zoill has left a wife and two little children to mourn his departure. Unlike many, they will not be thrown upon the cold charities of the world for protection. But the legacy he has left his children in his cinb, 89. Flour 4,5004,76 for good to choice spring exvirtnes, and his character as a man, are far tras. Corn quiet at 39440c. Oats 21 1/2c affoat. Barley the legacy he has left his children in his better than the title-deeds to the lands he owned. As they grow up, they will learn with pleasure of the estimation in which their father was held in the community in which he lived, while their mother will point with pride to him as their examplar, In after years, the changes of time, and reverses of fortune, may perchance wrest. from their hands the property their father had accumulated and left behind him; but no combination of circumstances, no shifting changes of time, can rob them of that other legacy he has left them-his reputation as a good and honest man. The grass will grow green upon his grave—the gentle winds of summer will fan it into life-the snows of winter will cover it, and the wild storm howl around it,-but still ever and always, up from that grave, to his children, will come a "still small voice," whispering in the ear of each-" do your duty in life, be honest and good, be kind to your neigh. bor, be kind to your mother, and meet me at last in my beautiful home in Heaven."

METHODIST CONFERENCE.-The Wisconsin conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will commence its annual session in this city on Wednesday morning next at 9 o'clock. Bishop Scott will preside.-About 150 clergymen will be present.

A fire damp explosion occurred at a coal mine in Scranton, Pa., on Friday. Six men were in the mine, all of whom escaped except John Howard, Jr., who, it is feared, is sufficient. The scene was one of wild excitement, the pumps being broken, and the shaft filling with water.

ACCIDENT .- In Johnstown, last Friday, George Dickson, a lad eleven years old, and son of the Rev. H. H. Dickson, had his a threshing machine as to require the amputation of a part of it. He had been gratified in a request to drive the team attached to the horse-power during the temporary absence of a man who had been engaged for that purpose, and the consequence is the unfortunate result we have noticed. Too much caution cannot be observed in working these machines.

Poor Lola.—An eastern correspondent says that Lola Montez is stopping in Astoria with a kind friend, but, alas! in what a condition of body and mind! She is not exactly an imbecile, and yet what term will more clearly express her mental belplessness? A female friend of mine saw her a day or two ago, and it was enough to make one's heart bleed to note her picturesque limnings of the wonderfully changed wo-man. Lola was costumed in half robe, and she sat in a pretty garden, her hollow cheeks sunken eyes, and cadavarous complexion forming a remarkable contrast to the gay flowers. She was unable to utter an intel ligible word, except spasmodically, and after repeated efforts. Her mouth was frothing, like that of one in partial convulsions, and she was unconsciously wiping it, as little boys do, by drawing it across sleeve of her dresss. In fact, she had the strange, wild appearance and behaviour of a quiet idiot, and is evidently lost to all in terest in the world around her and its affairs. And so ends her eventful history! study for the brilliant and thoughtless! What a sermon on human vanity!

FAIRBANE'S SCALES .- A new scale for weighing stock before loading in cars, has lately been put up, we notice, at the cattle yards of the Pittsburg and Fort Wayne railroad in this city, with platform some thirty feet or more in length, and of a width suf-ficient for weighing a full car load at once. This must be a very convenient and eco-nomical arrangement where large quantities of stock, as here, are to be weighed for ship-which has long been familiar wherever scales are used, and is always the highest guaranty for excellence. It seems to be so constructed in all its parts as to combine the greatest possible strength, accuracy and durability, and has a shallow pit, as have various other modifications of the Fairbanks large scales, many of these requiring only twelve inches of extreme depth, which adapts them to locations where greater depth would be an objection,-Chicago Democrat.

Freedom vs. Slavery.

Such are the two great elements of political power now contending for the supremacy in the federal government. One directly opposite the other in all that constitutes the true essentials of human society or of human government. Between the two there ever has, and there ever will be, an irrepressible conflict until freedom shall be recognized by the American people as it was by the Fathers; the only national institution of the Republic. This strife between the two systems is nothing more than the natural result from a contact of such opposing principles. Slavery degrades and brutalizes man and denys his inherent and natural rights. Freedom elevates and ennobles the human race and grants man his inalienable right of life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness. Freedom is the very basis and bulwark of an enlightened and powerful government. Slavery undermines tality and barbarism.

The history of all past empires and republics affords incontrovertible proof greatness and power to the institutions of to at once, or he will be committing "treathis position. The Roman empire owed its human liberty--its downfall to their degradation by the instituting of human slavery. i.et us then learn wisdom from the experience of the past. Our own country has las," has been issued from the Chicago within itself the seeds of dissolution. The slave states of the south, the most genial in climate and the most fertile and productive taken, at different times in his career, alof any portion of the American continent, owing to the blight of human slavery, are very question. the weakest in internal strength and resources of any part of the Union. The proof ent of the Boston Journal, writes: of this is to be found in her impoverished soil, the degraded and illiterate condition of her non-slaveholding whites, the decreased value of her lands, and the sparsity of many as would go out to see a dog fighther population. The true remedy for this not so many as go out to join a German great political evil is its exclusion by the American people from the national territo- whole, went to behold what was not seeable. ries by their chosen representatives in the The rowdies had it all to themselves. The federal congress. This was the position of prominent New York politicians were not the fathers of the republic, and of the best to be seen. Mr. Douglas repeated his thrice and wisest of American statesmen. It is his fortune at stump oratory. That the the doctrine of the constitution affirmed by empire state has gone for Lincoln, all althe supreme court of the United States, by repeated decisions, by the earlier judges, who were imbued with the principles of the

Our own experience then, and the history of past governments having demonstrated the fact that slavery is the sure and certain element of ruin and decay, and freedom the bulwark of national power, it becomes us as American freemen in this important presidential canvass to cast our vote upon the side of human liberty. The strength of nations does not consist in their immense naval or military armaments; but in the intelligence and worth of a free the same old lady was previously married and enlightened people. So with our own and enlightened people. So with our own country the sacred guarantees of the constitution must be maintained and our free institutions become endeared to every free should aid their New York sisters in packman as the sacred pledge of American liberty. Then would this union of states attain the highest degree of national prosperity and become the impregnable fortress of freedom upon the broad earth.

The restriction of slavery to the territories is the only political remedy left to us, under the constitution. This was deemed sufficient to eradicate the evil by Jefferson and his compeers, and this was their policy as was acknowledged by Mason, of Va., last winter in the United States Senate. If it had been strictly adhered to we should not now be compelled to meet this question and drawing it out. He retained his consciousdecide it. Slavery would have died out ere and walked up two flight of stairs to his this in every state in the Union. But the policy of the founders of our government has been changed and we, their descendants, are compelled to dispose of slavery now when it has grown to be a monster wrong. Let us not put off the evil day, you? Ask the sun if it loves flowerswrong. Let us not put ou the evil day, ask a cold kitten if it loves a hot brick bat. but meet it like men and patriots. by their local laws, we will insist that wherever the nation has power, outside of the states, we will wage an "irrepressible pressible conflict" against it in all its forms, hoping, while the national government is kept from sustaining human bondage, and is free from its influence, in the language of Patrick Henry, "that the time will come, when an opportunity will be offered to abolish this lamentable evil" by all the states. Thus we shall then have a glorious, united, happy and FREE REPUBLIC.

Gov. Banks, of Massachusetts, arrived in Chicago on Friday, where he will take up his residence. He was seranaded in the evening and there was a general turn out of the Wide Awakes of the city, as well as citizens generally. Mr. Banks made an eloquent reply to the hospitalities tendered to him.

The four states of Maine, Vermont, Missouri and Arkansas have chosen their members of the 37th congress. Including Rollins and Blair of Missouri, eleven are republicans, five Douglas democrats and two Breckinridge democrats. Six of the eighteen are members of the present house.

The gallant Henry Winter Davis, of Maryland, was written to by some of the managers of the Bell meeting, in Easton, Pa., and requested to favor them with a speech. His reply was to the effect that he would be happy to make any number of speeches for them-but hereafter his speeches would favor the election of Lincoln.

Missouri farmers are now engaged n cutting hemp. In many fields the vield is excellent, in others the hemp is short, in a few the growth is so indifferent that it putting himself at the head of the revoluwill not be worth cutting. It is the opinion of experienced hemp growers that the erop will be an average one, and that the lint will be heavy.

ANOTHER FACE .- Mr. Douglas said at Clifton Springs:

I cannot believe that there is a man in America of ordinary intelligence who does not know that I hold that a people of a territory, whilst a territory and during a terriand degrades a nation into a state of bru- torial condition, may introduce, exclude, abolish or regulate slavery just as they please.

I have it on curiously better authority than the offi-cial reports of the Moniteur, that his reception at Lyons the other day was anything but enthusiastic. "That baby," said a delighted mother,
"we look upon as the flower of the family." Being a boy, and robed in yellow flannel, she ought to have called him the sun flower.

Mr. Seward in Illinois.

Mr. Seward and his party left Dunleith on the night train on Friday, via Galena, Freeport, Mendota and Quincy for Kansas. At Galena the inevitable wide awakes were at the depot, two hundred strong, with a splen did Young America corps, numbering eighty members. The "boys in drill and appear ance were fully equal to their elder broth-Mr. Seward spoke briefly, and was followed by others of the party. On arriving at Freeport at half past ten, the train was welcomed by the booming of cannon, the presence of the ladies of the city, the wide awakes, and a large concourse of citizens. Mr. Seward was conducted to a platform and returned his thanks for the compliment conveyed by such an attendance, at such an unseasonable hour. In the course of his remarks he said, "In spite of all combinations formed, or to be formed, set down New York for 70,000. [A voice. Half of that is enough.] No, sir, half of that is not enough. In an ordinary case, New York would give 35,000 majority. But under the circumstances, we shall be satisfied with nothing less than 70,000 for Abraham Lincoln." Hon. C. F. Adams, Gen. Nye and others were also called out. At Dixon, although after midnight, the cannon, with the ever present wide awakes, and a large crowd, were at the depot to honor the distinguished statesman. The entire party, with the exception of

Hon. C. F. Adams, who returns home, proceed to Kansas, and will be at Chicago on the 2d of October.

WILLIAM ZUILL.

The very large concourse of neighbors and friends, who attended the funeral of this gentleman, in the town of Johnstown, on Saturday last, as well as the attendance of persons from this city, and Walworth county, attested the high estimation in which he was held while living, and the universal regret at his loss.

Mr. Zuill was a native of Kippen, near Sterling, in Scotland. He came to this country in the year 1844-had resided in this county for the last sixteen years-and when the accident happened which ended his days, he was but little more than thirtyfour years of age. Under these circumstances his sudden summons to eternity, came with peculiar severity, upon those in whose midst he had so long resided; and the solemu tones of the funeral bell as the cortege proceeded from his late residence to the church, near which his remains were to be deposited, gave to the scene an impressive solemnity. At the church a few appropriate remarks were made by the Rev. Mr. Walker, after which the friends of the deceased took their last look upon his face, and then his remains were borne to the grave, and laid by the side of those of his Father-there to remain until the last trump shall wake him back to life again.

Mr. Zuill, as your readers are aware, had been in attendance upon the Walworth County Fair and was among the injured at the fatal collision which occurred at Delevan, on Friday the 14th inst. After the accident faint hopes were entertained of his recovery, but his injuries proved to be of such a nature as to defy the best medical skill, and on the morning of the 20th he breathed his last.

In speaking of the important loss which those who were near and dear to him have sustained, words are powerless for comfort. Time alone can minister to the stricken heart and reconcile it to its bereavement.

But yet the severity of the blow, is softened in the knowledge that he was an exemplary christian, a tender husband and an affectionate father; while his character and his virtues, as a quiet and unassuming gentleman, a kind neighbor, a warm friend and active and enterprising man, will endear his memory to those who have enjoyed his acquaintance in the every day intercourse tive. There is no change to note in coarse grains exof life.

By his energy and industry, Mr. Zuill had acquired a competency. So far as this world's goods are concerned, he had gathered every thing around him his heart could wish. But unlike many of that class he never lost that better part of man-his kindness of heart. On all occasions, he was ready to minister to the wants of the distressed, and in every public enterpriseparticularly that which had for its object the advancement of the agricultural interests of the country-he was among the foremost and most liberal of contributors; and in this behalf his loss will be severely felt in the county in which he resided.

Mr. Zvill has left a wife and two little children to mourn his departure. Unlike many, they will not be thrown upon the cold charities of the world for protection. But the legacy he has left his children in his virtues, and his character as a man, are far better than the title-deeds to the lands he owned. As they grow up, they will learn with pleasure of the estimation in which their father was held in the community in which he lived, while their mother will point with pride to him as their examplar. In after years, the changes of time, and reverses of fortune, may perchance wrest from their hands the property their father had accumulated and left behind him; but no combination of circumstances, no shifting changes of time, can rob them of that other legacy he has left them-his reputation as a good and honest man. The grass will grow green upon his grave—the gentle winds of summer will fan it into life-the snows of winter will cover it, and the wild storm howl around it,-but still ever and always, up from that grave, to his children, will come a "still small voice," whispering in the ear of each-"co your duty in life. be honest and good, be kind to your neigh. bor, he kind to your mother, and meet me at last in my beautiful home in Heaven,"

METHODIST CONFERENCE .- The Wisconsin conference of the Methodist Episcopal church will commence its annual session in this city on Wednesday morning next at 9 o'clock. Bishop Scott will preside,-About 150 clergymen will be present.

A fire damp explosion occurred at a coal mine in Scranton, Pa., on Friday. Six men were in the mine, all of whom escaped except John Howard, Jr., who, it is feared, is suffocated. The scene was one of wild excitement, the pumps being broken, and the shaft filling with water.

ACCIDENT.-In Johnstown, last Friday, George Dickson, a lad eleven years old, and son of the Rev. H. H. Dickson, had his of the citizens of Janesville and Rock counfoot so badly injured in the horse-power of ty to the following well known, reliable and a threshing machine as to require the am- prompt paying putation of a part of it. He had been gratified in a request to drive the team attached to the horse power during the temporary absence of a man who had been cngaged for that purpose, and the consequence is the unfortunate result we have noticed. Too much caution cannot be observed in

Poor Lola.—An eastern correspondent says that Lola Montez is stopping in Asto-ria with a kind friend, but, alas! in what a condition of body and mind! She is not exactly an imbecile, and yet what term will more clearly express her mental helplessness? A female friend of mine saw her a day or two ago, and it was enough to make one's heart bleed to note her picturesque limnings of the wonderfully changed woman. Lola was costumed in half robe, and she sat in a pretty garden, her hollow cheeks, sunken eyes, and cadavarous complexion forming a remarkable contrast to the gay flowers. She was unable to utter an intel ligible word, except spasmodically, and after repeated efforts. Her mouth was frothing, like that of one in partial convulsions, and she was unconsciously wiping it, as little boys do, by drawing it across the sleeve of her dresss. In fact, she had the strange, wild appearance and behaviour of a quiet idiot, and is evidently lost to all interest in the world around her and its affairs.

And so ends her eventful history! What a study for the brilliant and thoughtless
